

Success Story

Cloud Accounting from the other side of the world

Supporting a management team buyout and setting up an entire accounting department, completely online from across the ocean

“As a business, we have to have that ability to keep the plates spinning and Sage Accounting helps us with that enormously.”

Peter Brealey

Company Director, Brealey Foster & Co

The challenge

Peter Brealey, principal of Brealey Foster & Co was tasked with setting up an entirely new accounting department, as part of a management team buyout of a large turnover business. The only trouble was, the next week he was going to be in Latin America.

The solution

By using Sage Accounting, Peter was able to complete all of the accounting set up online, and keep his clients updated at every step. He could continue to offer the first class support his customers have come to expect.

The outcomes

Sage Accounting has transformed the way Brealey Foster & Co support their clients, allowing them to see the whole picture in real time, and translate that into business success.

- Sage AutoEntry allows invoices to be simply scanned in
- Real time analysis of clients' accounts
- Staff are more confident in their management of accounts
- Transformed the way they record and store information
